FOREWORD

We offer praise and gratitude to Jesus Christ for His blessings and guidance, which have enabled the completion of the "Guidebook of Jakarta International University Library." This book is organized to assist users in utilizing the available services at the library. Furthermore, this guidebook is expected to provide a basic overview of the library, including its collections, visits, history, standard operating procedures, et cetera. Therefore, services can be carried out in a well-planned, directed, optimal, and sustainable manner.

Recognizing the limitations in knowledge and experience, we acknowledge that this guidebook for Jakarta International University Library may have its shortcomings. However, we hope that this guidebook can facilitate users in accessing and utilizing the available services effectively and efficiently. We also express our sincere gratitude to all parties who have contributed in helping.

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 LIBRARY PROFILE

1.1.1 History

The history of the establishment of the Jakarta International University library certainly does not separated from the background of the main institutional establishment. 2006 was the first year of planning and preparation for the establishment of the Jakarta International University in conjunction with the Duranno Indonesia Foundation. A land area of 50,000 m2 was purchased in 2008 in the Deltamas area. The design of the prospective campus was completed in 2014 and the main JIU building was completed in March 2017 with the collaboration between architects from Korea and America. The first batch of students began to register in 2018. At that time the name of the institution was still Sekolah Tinggi Bahasa Asing (STBA) or College of Foreign Languages and Sekolah Tinggi Ilmu Ekonomi (STIE) or College of Economics JIU. At that time, supporting facilities for learning such as library, classroom, auditorium, computer room, and others were already available.

After several years, in June 2022 the struggle of all parties resulted in the letter "Decree of the Minister of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology of the Republic of Indonesia Number 386/E/O/2022 concerning Permits for Merging JIU Foreign Language College and JIU College of Economics in Bekasi Regency becomes a Jakarta International University in Bekasi Regency, West Java Province organized by the Duranno Indonesia Foundation”.

The issuance of the decree made the library staff cooperate with the chancellor and staff from other departments to register the library to the regional-based data collection organized by the National Library of Indonesia. Documents and other things are prepared well. Starting from the letter "Decree of the Chancellor of the International University of Jakarta Number 021/JIU-SKK/VIII/2022 concerning the Establishment of the Jakarta International University Library" to the letter "Decree of the Chancellor of the International University of Jakarta Number 022/JIU-SKK/VIII/2022 concerning the Appointment of the Head of the Jakarta International University Library". The registration process produces a library identification number (NPP) which is given by the National Library of Indonesia with NPP: 3216202D0000001.

The Jakarta International University Library is supported by "The Nissi Group" and "Dream Blue Foundation". Therefore, the library is also often referred to as the "Dream Blue Library".

1.2 LIBRARY VISION, MISSION AND OBJECTIVES

1.2.1 Vision

Become an information and science center that develops the core values of Jakarta International University education, that is LIFE (love, integrity, faithfulness, and excellence) for the academic community.

1.2.2 Mission

1. Develop and equip the quality of library human resources and meet international standards for information resources in various fields of study.
2. Select, procure, catalog, process, and present relevant up-to-date library materials.
3. Guide users to make good use of library facilities.
4. Provide services that are friendly to visitors.
5. Provide updated facilities and infrastructure regularly.

1.2.3 Objectives

1. Support the implementation of the Tri Dharma of higher education and the achievement of university goals.
2. Encourage the formation of excellent and high-quality academic communities in the academics and character through the library materials provided.
3. Help users have the skills to effectively and efficiently find information relevant to their needs.
4. Resolve the negative public perception of libraries embedded in society.

5. Provide a safe and comfortable environment and help to improve the quality of learning, performance and self-development in the academic community.

1.3 ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

CHAPTER II

LIBRARY RULES AND COLLECTION

2.1 LIBRARY RULES

Library rules are the fundamental regulations that must be followed by all library visitors without exception, to maintain order and ensure the comfort and security of all visitors and to protect the library's collection. The following rules apply at the Jakarta International University Library:

1. The library is open to all academic members and external visitors.
2. All students are automatically members of the library. For students who join in the middle of the semester or staff members, registration as a library member is required to access various library services.
3. Visitors must dress appropriately and neatly according to the rules.
4. Visitors are required to behave politely, maintain order, security, and not disturb other visitors' comfort.
5. Bringing colored and flavored food and drinks is prohibited. Only mineral water is allowed.
6. Visitors are expected to tidy up the chairs and tables used and not litter anywhere.
7. Visitors are not allowed to adjust the air conditioning temperature in the reading rooms without permission from the librarian. The AC temperature should only be set around 25-26°C.
8. Stealing, losing, or damaging collection (tearing, folding, scribbling, et cetera) will result in sanctions according to the applicable rules.
9. Damaging or omitting library property will require compensation according to the price of the item.
10. Making phone calls inside the library is not allowed. If visitors want to do Zoom meeting, they should use a study room.
11. Watching YouTube, using movie-watching applications, and playing games are not allowed unless it is related to academic purposes.
12. Visitors who have received three warnings will be expelled from the library and will not have the right to use library services or facilities.

2.2 COLLECTION

2.2.1 Classification

To classify collections to be easier to find, the Jakarta International University Library is guided by the 23rd edition of DDC which will then be adapted to the Library of Congress, the National Library of Indonesia, and the OCLC Online Computer Library Center Classify. Here is the outline list:

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

2.2.2 Collection Call Numbers

To facilitate visitors in the process of retrieving collections, it is necessary to create collection call numbers that will serve as references for organizing the collections on the bookshelves. The following is an example of a call number for books that is attached to the bottom spine of the book.

For more complex, here is an example of a collection call number:

- I : Describe the languages of the book, I = Indonesian, J = Japanese,
K = Korean (for books in English, it does not require a language description)
- 248.661 : Class number based on DDC edition 23
- A7881 : Cutter number surname / last name of the author or person in charge. Obtained from the Dewey OCLC application program.
- B : Is the first letter of the book title, but excludes the word connecting or complementary without special meaning. For example, a book entitled "the public relationship", will use the letter 'p' instead of the letter 't'.
- 2 : Describe the edition, based on the example, the book is is the second edition.
- v.1 : Book volume
- c.2 : Copy code or show how many copies

2.2.3 Types of Collection

- a. Printed Collections: In general, collections in libraries are still dominated by printed forms because there is no transition to digital yet. Consists of a collection of references (dictionaries, encyclopedias, scriptures, correspondence), theses and yearbooks that can only be read on the spot, and other supporting books that can be borrowed through the circulation service.
- b. Digital Collections: This collection comes in two forms, namely DVDs which are categorized into knowledge DVDs, movie DVDs, and music DVDs; can be borrowed through the circulation service. The second form is in the form of a k. OPAC (Online Public Access Catalog): Visitors can utilize this facility to access information about the library's collection catalog using library computers or their personal gadgets by logging in to the provided link <http://lib.jiu.ac/>.

PDF containing student thesis and stored on Google Drive; files can be accessed via link tree in Instagram library.

l. WiFi: In the library area, there is an internet network specifically for visitors, namely M204 (Library) with the password HappyCampus!.

m. Drinking water: Every visitor may use this facility by bringing their own drinking bottles and paying attention to the availability of water.

CHAPTER IV

HUMAN RESOURCES AND LIBRARY SERVICES

4.1 HUMAN RESOURCES IN THE LIBRARY

Human resources in the library are people who work or participate in the library services and management. At Jakarta International University Library, human resources are divided into two categories: full-time library staff and work-study. Work-study workers are selected from among the university's students and are similar to interns. They are allowed to work and assist library staff during their free hours. However, they are required to fulfill a working commitment of 33 hours per month. After the work period is over, the library staff will provide a certificate as a recognition of work and learning experience during work-study program at the library. The following is the detailed data on library resources:

| No | Name                           | Position        | Education                                   | Placement   |
