

Student Service Scholarship (Work Study) Program Selection Process Guideline (rev. 2025.07)

CH. 1 INTRODUCTION

1.1. Objectives of the Guideline

This guideline establishes the objectives, procedures, and management standards for the Jakarta International University (JIU) Student Service Scholarship program, which is designed to support departmental requests for student work assistance and provide equitable employment opportunities to JIU students. One of the important purposes of the Student Work Study program is to support and aid the student who is facing financial difficulties during their educational path at JIU.

1.2 Participation bodies and roles

1) Student

Students engaged in Work Study shall be obligated to observe strict punctuality, complete their assigned tasks diligently, provide necessary reports, and adhere to the instructions of their supervisors."

2) The department that requests a student

Each respective department is responsible for requesting job openings, setting the criteria, selecting final candidate, assigning daily work, overall management, evaluation, and final reporting of student work.

3) Student Affairs.

Student Affairs is responsible for making announcements of the Student Work Study position openings at the request of departments in K-eduplex.

Student Affairs is responsible for the administrative work for Work Study.

4) Study Program

The study program is responsible for verifying whether a student is eligible for participation in the Work Study program, based on student financial condition, family situation, and overall conduct in school life.

4) JIU Finance Office

The JIU Finance Office is responsible for releasing allowances for Work Study by the request of Student Affairs.

1.3 Process of the Student Work Study

The internship will be completed through the following process.

Job opening announcement – Selection – Work Study & guidance – Evaluation

CH. 2 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

2.1 Minimum requirement

1) An active student

The student has to be an active student in the current semester.

2) Semester/credit

The student has to complete university courses of at least 1 semester or 20 semester credits.

3) Financial duty

Every student who applies for Work Study must clear unpaid tuition fees, dormitory fees, and other financial liabilities of the previous semester before applying for the Work Study. In case of the student still has financial liabilities, the student has to set an agreement with the JIU finance office on their financial obligations.

2.1 Work Study position opening announcement policy

1) Official announcement

- When a department needs a Work Study student, the department needs to make an official announcement for the position opening through Student Affairs.
- On the announcement, requirement criteria, job description, condition of work, final acceptance due date of application, and period of screening process have to be notified clearly.

2) Application acceptance period

A minimum application acceptance period is three business days.

CH. 3 WORK STUDY PROCESS

3.1 Job opening announcement & Applying

1) Requesting a student

- The department prepares the requirement criteria, job description, conditions of work, and evaluation criteria for the job.

2) Job opening announcement

- The department requests an announcement to Student Affairs.

3) Student applicant

- Before a student applies for the job opening, the student has to notify his/her intention of applying for Work Study from the study program.
- Then, submit the application to the job opening department.

3.2 Student Selection Process

1) Screening Students

- The department that requests students is required to use the criteria below.
- For determining the level of applicants' financial condition and need, the department is required to gather information from the academic advisor (from the study program), Student Affairs, and its own interview questioning.

Guide criteria (Total 20 points)
Students' need (1-5 points) Suitability of required skill for Work Study job (1-5 points) Interview (1-5 points) Dormitory point (5%)

2) Subject of selection

- The head or the advisor from the Work Study requesting department is responsible for leading the selection process.
- More than 2 persons (in the department or personnel related to internship work) are required to participate in the selection process.

3) Finalizing selection

- Once a student is selected, the department is required to notify the result to Student Affairs and the study program.
- Student Affairs requests the release of allowances for Work Study on schedule.

3.3 Work Study Implementation Process

1) Work Study Management

- The department is required to assign a supervisor for the Work Study.
- The supervisor is responsible for assigning daily work, monitoring, and evaluating of students' performance.
- The supervisor is responsible for a weekly evaluation meeting to guide and advise the student.

2) Final Evaluation Report

- The department is responsible for making a final evaluation report on the student's performance and improvement to Student Affairs.